There will not be any other changes to the advertisements in the following year(s). If there is a change to the verbiage, we will re-file the advertisements when needed.

Your notice of acceptance of this filing will be greatly appreciated.

- ▶ Your benefits increase along with Medicare's deductibles and co-payments

Who needs a Medicare supplement insurance policy?

Original Medicare pays for many health care services and supplies, but it doesn't pay all of your health care costs. You must pay these expenses which are often deductibles, coinsurance and co-payments. See your out-of-pocket costs.

For a monthly premium, a Medicare supplement insurance policy helps you pay all or some of these costs, depending on the policy you choose.

A Medicare supplement insurance policy is for people on Medicare who want:

- ▶ Help paying for some health care costs
- ▶ To keep their own doctors and hospitals and choose their specialists and other health care providers
- ▶ To budget for the premium and not worry about high out-of-pocket expenses
- ▶ First-dollar coverage – don't have to pay deductibles or co-payments every time they see a doctor
- ▶ Their benefits to increase along with Medicare's deductibles and co-payments
- ▶ To be covered everywhere in the U.S.
- ▶ Their providers to file the claims so they don't have to hassle with paperwork
- ▶ Guaranteed renewable insurance so they can keep their policy as long as they pay their premiums on time

Our Medicare Supplement Insurance Policies

There are 12 federally standardized Medicare supplement insurance plans (Plans A-L). Insurance companies must offer Plan A and may offer any other plans. We have a policy that helps meet your needs and budget.

Benefits

Most Medicare supplement insurance policies pay these basic benefits:

- ▶ Medicare Part A hospital deductible ($1,024 in 2008), coinsurance plus coverage for 365 additional days after Medicare benefits end
- ▶ Medicare Part B coinsurance (generally 20% of Medicare approved expenses)
- ▶ First three pints of blood each year

Additional benefits, depending on the plan you choose, pay you for:

- ▶ Medicare Part B deductible ($135 in 2008)
- ▶ Medicare Part B excess charges
- ▶ At-home recovery visits
- ▶ Foreign travel emergency care

How to Select the Right Plan for You

As we age, our health care expenses generally increase and we see the doctor more frequently.

Ask yourself whether you could budget for any of these Medicare Part B costs and choose a Medicare supplement insurance policy according to your needs:

- ▶ Medicare Part B calendar-year deductible, $135 in 2008
- ▶ At-home recovery visits for assistance for activities of daily living for your recovery from an illness, injury or surgery
- ▶ Charges for excess benefits – Your bill for Medicare Part B services and supplies may exceed the Medicare-eligible expense, leaving you to pay the difference on your own. A Medicare supplement policy can help you pay the difference.
- ▶ Emergency care received outside the U.S.

In most cases, benefits are paid directly to your providers.
